Thierry Sciard joins StormHarbour as a Managing Principal

Monday, 16 August 2010 00:00

StormHarbour today names Thierry Sciard as a Managing Principal, bringing additional heavyweight industry experience to the firm's management team.

Sciard, who has some 30-years of combined investment banking, markets and investment management experience, is based in London and will be responsible for helping to drive the firm's European operations, in addition to developing and implementing strategies for a global Alternative Asset Management business and supporting the management of the firm worldwide.

Most recently Managing Director and Global Head of Fortis Investments' Alternatives and Solutions Division in London, Sciard was also formerly Head of Investment Management for Europe and the Middle East at Lehman Brothers International. He has also run the Global Markets and Fixed Income Divisions for some of the largest investment banks, including Calyon and Citigroup.
